SADIE'S SHABBAT STORIES

By Melissa Stoller

Illustrated by Lisa Goldberg

Clearfork Publishing, 2020

Before every Shabbat, Sadie and Nana bake challah and set the table with silver candlesticks, a sacred kiddush cup, and a decorated challah cover. And every Shabbat, Sadie asks Nana to share a story about these precious family heirlooms. The family's journey is woven together with Goldberg's dreamy illustrations reminiscent of paintings by Marc Chagall. (Ask young readers to find a fiddler, a flying bride and groom, dancing animals, and more!) Perfect for this time of year, when families typically gather for holiday meals and share stories about their ancestors, Sadie's Shabbat Stories reminds us of the tales that bind us to our past while carrying us forward from generation to generation.
